

CAPABILITIES QUESTIONNAIRE

For Minority, Woman, Veteran, and Disabled-Owned or Managed Companies Seeking to do Business with the Treasurer’s Office

PURPOSE

The Treasurer’s Office makes a concerted, proactive effort to do business with and utilize services from qualified minority, woman, veteran, and disabled-owned or managed financial companies,¹ particularly those with employees in Illinois. This includes brokerage firms, securities dealers, banks, credit unions, savings and loan companies, and other financial institutions.

Our Office seeks a wide variety of financial services from these parties, including, but not limited to:

- Brokerage/Dealer Services;
- Depository Services;
- Custody and Safekeeping;
- Linked/Time Deposits;
- Investment Consulting;
- Capital Markets;
- Asset Management;
- Private Equity;
- Venture Capital; and
- Other investment services.

By filling out this Capabilities Questionnaire, you can provide the Treasurer’s staff with a basis to be proactive in identifying opportunities for business transactions or service provision.
